The Hotel

The Sünnhof-Passage, characterized by boutiques on both sides, a typical Viennese pub called „Weissgerber Stube“, the restaurant “Im Sünnhof“ with its idyllic terrace and our beautiful “Mercure Grand Hotel Biedermeier” .

The Ensemble was built 1837 out of a core from the 18th century. The Passage was founded 1845. The architects, named Peter Gerl and Joseph Dallberg were commissioned by Rudolf Sünn. Exemplary renovated in 1983, the “Sünnhof” received the architecture prize “Europe-Nostra” in 1984. The “Mercure Grand Hotel Biedermeier Wien” is a classy 4* Hotel with 198 air-conditioned rooms in the typical Biedermeier-Style for feeling welcome in our beautiful city. This central located 4-star hotel represents itself in the classical old-Viennese passage and is an excellent example for charm and comfort of the modern Biedermeier-Style. Perfect located for a short walk to explore the city centre of Vienna: St. Stephen’s Cathedral, Belvedere Palace and the Ring Street with its historical buildings and museums. Culinary delights of the international and Viennese cuisine are offered in our restaurant “Im Sünnhof”; traditional Austrian and Viennese delicacies are served in our “Weissgerber Stube” - an old-Viennese “Beisl”.

Our Relax-Area is free of charge and can be used from 6:30 until 22:30 every day. It is the perfect place to reload your batteries. Four up-to-date meeting rooms with Biedermeier-Flair offer the space for meetings in a very special and classy ambience. All of the rooms have a beautiful front with windows for daylight and of course free WIFI. The rustic cellar vault as well as our generous winter garden are the optimal location for every kind of event.
